

Anything else is a compromise...

'Anything else is a compromise...'. Who does not know Miele's slogan?

Miele Netherlands is a successful subsidiary of the international Miele & Cie. KG group. In the Netherlands, Miele is not only responsible for the import and sales of household appliances, built-in appliances and appliances for professional use, but also for the service and maintenance regarding these appliances.

Miele Netherlands in Vianen employs a total of about 300 people now. The slogan 'Anything else is a compromise' manifests itself in all activities. Providing the highest quality and striving for perfection are characteristic of the entire company.

When it comes to quality, Miele does not take any chances. Their test requirements are therefore exceptionally high. Naturally, the highest quality also recurs in the renovation of Miele's info/service centre in Vianen. The same thought was applied in the choice of floor finish. The Bolidtop[®] 500 RF system meets Miele's high standards. The system stands out for its mechanical, chemical and electrical properties. This strong flooring can safely withstand the loads from forklifts, pump trucks and pallet movement. Activities that are the order of the day at Miele.
